

The Georgia Department of Revenue has entered into an agreement with the companies listed below to offer free electronic filing services to qualified Georgia taxpayers. Under this agreement, qualifying taxpayers can prepare and file their Georgia personal income tax returns electronically using approved software. Please read the information below or visit each company's web site to determine whether you meet their free electronic filing criteria.

The Georgia Department of Revenue neither endorses nor recommends any of these software companies.

NOTE: Some of the companies listed below may charge a fee for electronic preparation and/or filing of your federal return. We recommend that you read the information below carefully and visit the company's website to determine if the product you choose is totally free. Clicking a logo or link below will take you off of the Department of Revenue's website and onto a site maintained by the software provider.

Intuit Inc. and the Intuit Financial Freedom Foundation are proud to sponsor the Intuit Tax Freedom ProjectSM donating free TurboTax[®] returns to taxpayers who in tax year 2007 meet one of the following criteria:

- Qualify for the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC), or
- Earned $30,000 or less in adjusted gross income (AGI), or
- Served active duty military (including Reservists and National Guard) with a military W2 and an AGI of $54,000 or less.

Qualified taxpayers can prepare and file their federal and state returns electronically for FREE with our online tax preparation product. Filing with TurboTax is easy & accurate. TurboTax asks easy-to-understand questions and places your answers onto IRS-approved forms. Then double-checks your return for errors and helps maximize your refund by finding deductions and credits you may have overlooked. And when you e-file with TurboTax, you'll get your refund faster!

To use this free service, you must access TurboTax by clicking our logo or click here.
